

A Japanese painted wood
ema, or votive plaque Donated to Hiroshima Shrine, Marugame City,
Kagawa Prefecture,
in 1882

This votive plaque was dedicated to the shrine in gratitude for having survived a shipwreck.

Image from the Collection of the Seto Inland Sea Folk History Museum,
Takamatsu City, Japan